

Business & Industry Health Services

Northwest Technology Center developed its Business and Industry Health Services program to assist local healthcare providers find an affordable resource for training. Northwest Technology Center has an uncompromising commitment to providing a broad range of resources needed to promote growth and quality within the healthcare industry.

- ➔ Provide comprehensive needs assessment and ongoing local consulting services
- ➔ Develop compliant protocols
- ➔ Implement critical healthcare updates, best practices, new technologies and certifications

The Bottom Line:

Affordable, cost-effective solutions to improve the quality of healthcare.

Contact Information:

Tara Thomas, BSN, M.Ed
Business and Industry Health Services Director
1801 South Eleventh St.
Alva, OK 73717
580.327.0344

801 Vo-Tech Drive
Fairview, OK 73737
580.227.3708

tarat@nwtechonline.com

Northwest Technology Center provides a valuable educational opportunity for our staff on their campus and in our facility. The classes they provide keep us current on certifications and regulations that are required by the state in our industry. The flexible class schedule allows our staff to work while attending classes and with on-site in-service training. NWTC is a blessing to us and our community.

-Dayna Jordan, Beadles Nursing Home

Short Term Health/Medical Courses

This training is provided as an ongoing service to local healthcare entities in both the Alva and Fairview area. This training provides on-going, short-term adult training. Training includes: CPR, Medical Coding, CMA, CNA, Restorative Care, Advanced CNA, Home Health Care Aide-Deeming, CMA CEU, EMT Basic, EMT Intermediate, First Responder, First Responder-Refresher.

Massage Therapy Training/CEU's

Training sessions are scheduled for the practicing massage therapist to update and enhance certifications and licensure.

Wellness Training

This training is designed to develop an engaged and healthy workforce.

Customer Service Training

Focus on providing great customer service within the healthcare industry! Customers are your most important asset. This training teaches your front line staff and your entire organization how to provide exemplary customer service.

Customized Industry Training

Continuing Education Units (CEU's) are available. Please contact us for specific training topics.

www.nwtechonline.com